Green Week

This week at camp was Green Week! On Wednesday, the campers were able to meet get up close and personal with a possum, a corn snake, an owl, and a turtle from Walden's Puddle, a rescue and rehabilitation center for animals. The campers also helped improve the environment by kicking off the campwide bottle recycling program. On Friday, everyone at camp dressed up in green to celebrate nature. It was another fun week at camp!

News

First Day

William M - Log Cabin

The first day I got of the bus and I played numbers. George and I stayed together. After I played numbers, I went to horses. Then, I did Archeology. I found a lot of stuff but not the key. I went to lunch and ate lot of food. It was yummy! I went to the pool. It was fun. The i went farming and I was the only one.

Pool Time

Greta M - Bear Cubs

We went to the pool with Miss Abi. It was so much fun! I went kayaking. One of the kayaks was red.

Interviews

Audrey T - Tee Pee

I interviewed Joseph today. Hiis favorite group of campers is bear cubs. His favorite sport is tennis. His favorite type of activity at camp is rock climbing. Go ask Joseph if you want to learn more! I also interviewed Gii, today. Her favorite animal is a cat. Her favorite activity at camp is tree climbing. Her favorite color is teal. Go check her out!

Happy Birthday to our fanastic counselors Bailey, Michaela, Claire, and Angela!

Lake Yolo Magic

Adelaide - Log Cabin

Did you know that if you circle around Lake YOLO 5 times, you will have good luck for the rest of the day? Are you hot? Then get water! If you are hot and sweating, then you're probably hydrated. If you are hot and not sweating, then you are dehydrated. Did you know that I think anyone can do anything? Because anything is possible! But you have to believe.
